³ Or when he touches the uncleanness of a man with regard to all of his uncleanness that he becomes unclean with it, and it is hidden from him, but he himself knows, then he becomes guilty.

⁴ Or a person, when he swears {an oath} by speaking thoughtlessly with two lips to do evil or to do good, with regard to everything that the man thoughtlessly speaks in an oath, and it is hidden from him, but he himself knows, then he becomes guilty with regard to one from these {things}.

⁸ And he shall bring them to the priest and he shall present that which {is} for the sin offering first. And he shall twist off its head from the back of its neck, but he shall not divide {it}.

¹² And he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall grab from it, {with} the fullness of his handful, its memorial portion. And he shall cause {it} to become smoke on the altar, on the gifts of Yahweh. It {is} a sin offering.

⁴ then it shall be, when he sins and he becomes guilty, then he shall return the robbery that he robbed or the extortion that he extorted or the deposit that was deposited with him or the lost property that he found

⁵ or from all that he swore concerning it to the lie, then he shall restore it in its head and he shall add the fifth of it to it. To whomever it {is} to him, he shall give it on the day of his guilt.

⁶ And he shall bring his guilt to Yahweh, a perfect ram from the flock, in your valuation, for a guilt offering, to the priest.

¹² But the fire on the altar shall be made to burn on it. It shall not go out, and the priest shall burn wood on it, in the morning, in the morning. And he shall arrange the burnt offering on it and he shall cause the fat of the peace offerings to become smoke on it.

¹⁹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

²² And the anointed priest under him from his sons shall do it. An enduring statute: to Yahweh, a whole {offering} shall be made to become smoke.

²³ And every grain offering of the priest shall be a whole {offering}. It shall not be eaten.”

²⁴ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

²⁵ “Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, “This {is} the instruction of the sin offering: in the place where the burnt offering will be slaughtered, the sin offering shall be slaughtered to the face of Yahweh. It {is} a holy thing of holy things.

²⁶ The priest who presents it for a sin offering, he shall eat it. In a holy place, it shall be eaten, in the courtyard of the tent of meeting.

²⁹ Every male among the priests will eat it. It {is} a holy thing of holy things.

³⁰ But every sin offering that some of its blood is brought into the tent of meeting to make atonement in the holy place, it shall not be eaten. It shall be burned with fire.

Leviticus 7:1

⁴ and the two kidneys and the fat that {is} on them that {is} by the loins and the lobe on the liver (he shall remove it with the kidneys).

⁵ And the priest shall cause them to become smoke on the altar, a gift to Yahweh. It {is} a guilt offering.

⁷ As the sin offering, so the guilt offering. The instruction is one for them. The priest who makes atonement with it, it shall be for him.

¹³ With loaves of bread {with} leaven, he shall present his offering with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offerings.

¹⁷ But the remainder from the meat of the sacrifice shall be burned with fire on the third day.

¹⁸ And if some of the meat of the sacrifice of his peace offerings is ever eaten on the third day, the person who presented it will not be accepted; it will not be accounted to him. It will be defiled. And the person, the one eating from it, he shall carry his iniquity.

²² And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

²³ “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘You shall not eat any of the fat of an ox or a sheep or a goat.

²⁴ And the fat of a carcass or the fat of a torn animal shall be made for any work, but you shall certainly not eat it.

²⁶ And you shall not eat any blood in any of your dwelling places, of the bird or of the livestock.

²⁷ Any person who eats any blood, that person shall be cut off from his people.”

²⁸ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

²⁹ “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘The person presenting the sacrifice of his peace offerings to Yahweh shall bring his offering to Yahweh from the sacrifice of his peace offerings.

³¹ And the priest shall cause the fat to become smoke on the altar, and the breast shall be for Aaron and for his sons.

³² And the right thigh you shall give {as} a contribution to the priest from the sacrifices of your peace offerings.

³³ The person presenting the blood of the peace offerings and the fat from the sons of Aaron, the right thigh shall be for him for a portion.

³⁵ This {is} the allotment of Aaron and the allotment of his sons from the gifts of Yahweh, on the day he presented them as priests to Yahweh,

³⁶ which Yahweh commanded to give to them on the day of his anointing them from the people of Israel, an enduring statute for their generations.

²⁸ And Moses took them from on their hands, and he caused {them} to become smoke on the altar, on the burnt offering. They {were} an ordination offering, a pleasant smell. It {was} a gift to Yahweh.

³² But the remainder among the meat and among the bread you shall burn in the fire.

³⁴ Just as he did on this day, Yahweh commanded to do, to make atonement for you.

³⁶ And Aaron and his sons did all the things that Yahweh commanded by the hand of Moses.

Leviticus 9:1

¹ And it was, on the eighth day, Moses called to Aaron and to his sons and to the elders of Israel.

² And he said to Aaron, "Take for yourself a calf, a son of the cattle, for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, perfect, and present {them} to the face of Yahweh.

³ And to the sons of Israel, you will speak, saying, "Take a buck of the goats for a sin offering and a calf and a lamb, perfect sons of a year, for a burnt offering,

⁴ and an ox and a ram for peace offerings to sacrifice to the face of Yahweh, and a grain offering mixed with oil, for today Yahweh will appear to you.”

⁶ And Moses said, “This {is} the thing that Yahweh commanded you will do, and the glory of Yahweh will appear to you.”

⁷ And Moses said to Aaron, “Draw near to the altar and make your sin offering and your burnt offering and make atonement for the benefit of yourself and for the benefit of the people. And make the offering of the people and make atonement for their benefit, just as Yahweh commanded.”

¹¹ But the meat and the skin he burned with fire on the outside of the camp.

¹² And he slaughtered the burnt offering. And the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him, and he splashed it on the altar all around.

¹³ And the burnt offering they brought to him in its pieces and the head, and he caused {them} to become smoke on the altar.

¹⁴ And he washed the innards and the legs and he caused {them} to become smoke on the burnt offering, on the altar.

¹⁵ And he presented the offering of the people. And he took the goat of the sin offering that {was} for the people and he slaughtered it and he offered it as a sin offering, like the first.

¹⁷ And he presented the grain offering and he filled his palm from it and he caused {it} to become smoke on the altar in addition to the burnt offering of the morning.

¹⁸ And he slaughtered the ox and the ram of the sacrifice of the peace offerings that {were} for the people. And the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him, and he splashed it on the altar all around.

¹⁹ And the fat from the bull and from the ram, the fatty tail and that which covers {the innards} and the kidneys and the lobe of the liver—

²⁰ they put the fat on the breasts, and he caused the fat portions to become smoke on the altar.

²¹ And the breasts and the right thigh, Aaron waved {as} a wave offering to the face of Yahweh, just as Moses had commanded.

²² And Aaron lifted his hands toward the people, and he blessed them. And he came down from making the sin offering and the burnt offering and the peace offerings.

²³ And Moses and Aaron came into the tent of meeting, and they went out, and they blessed the people. And the glory of Yahweh appeared to all the people.

²⁴ And fire went out from before the face of Yahweh, and it consumed the burnt offering and the fat on the altar. And all the people saw, and they shouted and they fell on their faces.

Leviticus 10:1

² And fire went out from before the face of Yahweh, and it consumed them. And they died to the face of Yahweh.

³ And Moses said to Aaron, "This is what Yahweh spoke, saying, 'Among those who draw near to me, I will show myself to be holy. And on the faces of all the people, I will be honored.'" And Aaron was silent.

⁴ And Moses called to Mishael and to Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron. And he said to them, "Present {yourselves and} lift your brothers from the face of the Holy Place to {a place} on the outside of the camp."

⁵ And they presented {themselves} and they lifted them by their tunics to {a place} on the outside of the camp, just as Moses had spoken.

⁷ And from the entrance of the tent of meeting, you shall not go out, lest you die, for the oil of the anointing of Yahweh {is} on you." And they did according to the word of Moses.

⁸ And Yahweh spoke to Aaron, saying,

⁹ "Wine or beer do not drink, you or your sons with you, when you go into the tent of meeting, and you will not die—an enduring statute throughout your generations—

¹⁰ and to separate between the holy and between the common and between the unclean and between the clean,

¹¹ and to teach the sons of Israel all the statutes that Yahweh has spoken to them by the hand of Moses."

¹⁴ And the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the contribution you shall eat in a clean place, you and your sons and your daughters with you, for they are given {as} your portion and the portion of your sons from the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the sons of Israel.

¹⁵ The thigh of the contribution and the breast of the wave offering, in addition to the gifts of the fat portions, they shall bring to wave {as} a wave offering to the face of Yahweh. And it shall be for you and for your sons with you as an enduring portion, just as Yahweh commanded."

¹⁶ And the goat of the sin offering Moses, searching, searched for. But look! It had been burned up! And he was angry with Eleazar and with Ithamar, the remaining sons of Aaron, saying,

¹⁷ “Why have you not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, for it is a holy thing of holy things? And he gave it to you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them to the face of Yahweh.

¹⁸ Look, its blood was not brought into the inner Holy Place. Eating, you shall eat it in the holy place, just as I commanded!”

¹⁹ And Aaron spoke to Moses, “Look, today they presented their sin offering and their burnt offering to the face of Yahweh, and it has happened to me according to these things. But {if} I ate the sin offering today, would it have been good in the eyes of Yahweh?”

²⁰ And Moses heard, and it was good in his eyes.

Leviticus 11:1

¹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying to them,

² “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘This {is} the living thing that you shall eat from all the livestock that {are} on the earth.

³ Anything dividing a hoof and splitting the cleft of hooves, making the cud go up among the livestock—you shall eat it.

⁷ And the pig, because it is dividing a hoof and splitting the cleft of a hoof, but it itself does not chew the cud. It {is} unclean to you.

⁸ You shall not eat from their meat and you shall not touch their carcasses. They {are} unclean to you.

¹⁰ But everything that there is not to it fins or scales in the seas or in the rivers, from every swarming thing of the water and from every life of a living thing that {is} in the water—they {are} a detestable thing to you.

¹¹ And they shall be a detestable thing to you. You shall not eat from their meat and you shall detest their carcasses.

¹² Everything that there is not to it fins or scales in the water—it {is} a detestable thing to you.

¹³ And these you shall detest from the bird. They shall not be eaten; they {are} a detestable thing: the eagle and the vulture and the buzzard

¹⁴ and the kite and the falcon of its kind,

¹⁵ any raven of its kind

¹⁶ and the daughter of clamor and the owl and the gull and the hawk of its kind

¹⁷ and the little owl and the cormorant and the big owl

¹⁸ and the waterhen and the pelican and the ibis

²⁰ Every swarming thing of the wing, the one walking on four—it {is} a detestable thing to you.

²³ But every swarming thing of the wing that to it {are} four feet—it {is} a detestable thing to you.

²⁴ And by these, you will make yourselves unclean; anyone who touches their carcasses will become unclean until the evening,

²⁵ and anyone lifting {one} of their carcasses shall wash his clothes, and he will be unclean until the evening.

²⁶ To any livestock that it {is} dividing the hoof, but it is not splitting the cleft, and it is not making the cud go up—they {are} unclean to you. Anyone who touches them will become unclean.

²⁸ And the one who lifts their carcasses shall wash his clothes and he will become unclean until the evening. They {are} unclean to you.

²⁹ And these {are} unclean to you among the swarming things, the ones that swarm on the earth: the rat and the mouse and the large lizard of its kind

³¹ These {are} unclean to you among all the swarming things. Anyone who touches them when they are dead will become unclean until the evening.

³² And anything on which {one} from them falls when they are dead will become unclean, from any vessel of wood or cloth or leather or sackcloth—any vessel that work is done with them shall be brought into the water, and it will be unclean until the evening. Then it will be clean.

³⁴ From any food that is eaten that water comes onto it will become unclean, and any drink that is drunk from any vessel will become unclean.

³⁷ But when {one} of their carcass falls on any seed, a sown seed that will be sown, it {is} clean.

³⁸ But when water is given on seed, and {one} of their carcass falls onto it, it {is} unclean to you.

³⁹ But when {one} from the livestock that it {is} to you to eat dies, the one touching its carcass will become unclean until the evening.

⁴⁰ And the one eating from its carcass shall wash his clothes, and he will be unclean until the evening. And the one lifting its carcass shall wash his clothes, and he will be unclean until the evening.

⁴¹ And every swarming thing, the one swarming on the ground—it {is} a detestable thing. It shall not be eaten.

⁴⁴ For I {am} Yahweh your God. And you shall make yourselves holy, and you shall be holy {people} because I {am} holy. And you shall not make your spirits unclean with any swarming thing, the one crawling on the earth.

⁴⁵ For I {am} Yahweh, the one bringing you up from the land of Egypt to be God for you. And you shall be holy {people}, for I {am} holy.

⁴⁶ This {is} the instruction of the livestock and the bird and every life of the living thing, the ones swarming in the water, and of every life, the ones crawling on the earth,

⁴⁷ to separate between the unclean and between the clean and between the living thing, the one being eaten, and between the living thing that shall not be eaten.”

Leviticus 12:1

¹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

² “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘A woman, when she bears seed and she bears a male, then she will be unclean {for} seven days. Like the days of the menstruation of her menstruating, she is unclean.

³ And on the eighth day, the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.

⁴ And 30 days and three days she shall stay in the blood of her purification. Any holy thing she shall not touch and into the holy place she shall not go until the days of her purification are full.

⁵ But if she bears a female, then she will be unclean {for} two sets of seven {days}, like her menstruation. And 60 days and six days she shall stay in the blood of her purification.

⁶ And when the days of her purification are full, for a son or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb, a son of its year, as a burnt offering, and a son of a pigeon or turtledove as a sin offering, to the entrance of the tent of meeting, to the priest.

⁸ But if her hand does not find enough of a lamb, then she shall take two turtledoves or two sons of the pigeon, one for a burnt offering and one for a sin offering. And the priest shall make atonement for her. And she will be clean.”

Leviticus 13:1

¹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

⁶ And the priest shall see him on the second seventh day, and look, the infection has faded and the infection has not spread on the skin. Then the priest shall pronounce him clean. It {is} a scab, and he shall wash his clothes and he will be clean.

⁷ But if, spreading, the scab spreads on the skin after his appearing to the priest for his being pronounced clean, then he shall appear to the priest a second {time}.

⁸ And the priest shall see, and look, the scab has spread on the skin. Then the priest shall make him unclean. It {is} a skin disease.

⁹ An infection of skin disease, when it is on a man, then he shall be brought to the priest.

¹¹ It {is} a reoccurring skin disease on the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. He shall not separate him, because he {is} unclean.

¹² But if, breaking out, the skin disease breaks out on the skin, and the skin disease covers all the skin of the infection, from his head and to his feet, to the whole appearance of the eyes of the priest,

¹³ then the priest shall see, and look, the skin disease has covered his whole flesh. Then he shall pronounce the infection clean. All of it has turned white; he {is} clean.

¹⁴ And on the day of the appearing of living flesh on him, he will be unclean.

¹⁵ And the priest shall see the living flesh, and he shall pronounce him unclean. The living flesh, it {is} unclean. It {is} a skin disease.

¹⁶ Or when the living flesh returns, and it is turned to white, then he shall go to the priest.

¹⁷ And the priest shall see him, and look, the infection has been turned to white. Then the priest shall pronounce the infection clean. He {is} clean.

¹⁸ But flesh, when it has on it, on his skin, a boil, and it has been healed,

¹⁹ and a white swelling or a white-reddish bright spot is in the place of the boil, then he shall appear to the priest.

²¹ And if the priest sees it, and look, there is no white hair on it, and lower it is not than the skin, and it has faded, then the priest shall separate him {for} seven days.

²² But if, spreading, it spreads on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It {is} an infection.

²³ But if the bright spot stands under it (it has not spread), it {is} the scar of the boil. And the priest shall pronounce him clean.

²⁴ Or flesh, when it has a burn of fire on his skin, and the preservation of the burn has become a reddish-white or white spot,

²⁵ then the priest shall see it, and look, the hair has been turned white on the bright spot, and the appearance of it {is} deeper than the skin; it {is} a skin disease. It has broken out on the burn. And the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It {is} an infection of skin disease.

²⁷ And the priest shall see him on the seventh day. If, spreading, it has spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It {is} an infection of skin disease.

²⁸ But if the bright spot stands under it—it has not spread on the skin but it {is} faded—it {is} the swelling of the burn. And the priest shall pronounce him clean because it {is} the scar of the burn.

²⁹ And a man or a woman, when he has an infection on him, on a head or in a beard,

³³ Then he shall shave himself, but the scall shall not be shaved. And the priest shall separate the scall {for} a second seven days.

³⁴ And the priest shall see the scall on the seventh day. And look, the scall has not spread on the skin, and the appearance of it is not deeper than the skin. Then the priest shall pronounce him clean. And he shall wash his clothes, and he will be clean.

³⁵ But if, spreading, the scall has spread on the skin after his cleansing,

³⁶ then the priest shall see him. And, look, the scall has spread on the skin. The priest shall not seek for yellow hair; he {is} unclean.

³⁷ But if, in his eyes, the scall stands, and black hair has sprouted on it, the scall has been healed. He {is} clean, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

³⁸ And a man or a woman, when he has on the skin of their flesh bright spots, white bright spots,

³⁹ then the priest shall see. And look, the bright spots on the skin of their flesh {are} dull white; it {is} a rash. It has broken out on the skin. He {is} clean.

⁴⁰ And a man, when his head is made bare, he {is} bald. He {is} clean.

⁴¹ And if his head is made bare from the corners of his face, he {is} balding. He {is} clean.

⁴² But when there is on the {back} bald spot or on the {front} balding spot a reddish-white infection, it {is} a skin disease, breaking out on his {back} bald spot or on his {front} balding spot.

⁴⁴ He {is} a man of skin disease; he {is} unclean. Being unclean, the priest shall pronounce him unclean on his head of his infection.

⁴⁶ All the days that the infection {is} on him he will be unclean. He {is} unclean. He shall dwell alone; his dwelling {shall be} outside the camp.

⁴⁷ But the clothing, when it has on it the infection of disease, on clothing of wool or on clothing of linen,

⁴⁸ or in the warp or in the woof of the linen or of the wool, or on leather, or on any work of leather,

⁴⁹ and the infection is yellowish-green or reddish on the clothing or on the leather or in the warp or in the woof or on any equipment of leather, it {is} an infection of disease. And the priest shall be made to see {it}.

⁵⁰ And the priest shall see the infection, and he shall separate the infection {for} seven days.

⁵¹ And he shall see the infection on the seventh day. If the infection has spread on the clothing or in the warp or in the woof or on the leather—of any equipment into which the leather was made—the infection {is} a malignant disease. It {is} unclean.

⁵² And he shall burn the clothing or the warp or the woof, on wool or on linen or any equipment of leather, whatever has on it the infection because it {is} a malignant disease. It shall be burned with fire.

⁵³ But if the priest sees, and look, the infection has not spread on the clothing or in the warp or in the woof or on any equipment of leather,

⁵⁴ then the priest shall command, and they shall wash that which the infection {was} on it. And he shall separate it {for} a second seven days.

⁵⁵ And the priest shall see after the infection has been washed, and look, the infection has not turned its eye and the infection has not spread. It {is} unclean. You shall burn it with fire. It {is} a rot, on its {front} bare side or on its {back} bare side.

⁵⁶ But if the priest sees, and look, the infection has faded after it was washed, then he shall tear it from the clothing or from the leather or from the warp or from the woof.

⁵⁷ And if it still appears on the clothing or in the warp or in the woof or on any equipment of leather, it is breaking out. You shall burn it with fire—that which {has} the infection on it.

⁵⁸ But the clothing or the warp or the woof or any equipment of leather that you washed and the infection turned aside from them, it shall be washed a second {time}, and it will be clean.

⁵⁹ This {is} the instruction of the infection of disease of clothing of wool or linen or warp or woof or any equipment of leather to pronounce it clean or to pronounce it unclean."

Leviticus 14:1

¹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

² “This will be the law of the person with a skin disease on the day of his cleansing. And he shall be brought to the priest.

³ And the priest shall go out to {a place} on the outside of the camp and the priest shall see. And look, the infection of the skin disease was healed from the person with the skin disease.

⁴ Then the priest shall command, and he shall take for the person who is being cleansed two live, clean birds and wood of cedar and crimson of worm and hyssop.

⁵ And the priest shall command, and he shall slaughter one bird into a container of clay, over living water.

⁶ The live bird, he shall take it and the wood of cedar and the crimson of worm and the hyssop, and he shall dip them and the live bird in the blood of the bird, the slaughtered one, over the living water.

⁷ And he shall sprinkle on the person who is being cleansed from the skin disease seven times, and he shall pronounce him clean. And he will send the live bird toward the face of the field.

⁸ And the person who is being cleansed shall wash his clothes, and he shall shave all his hair and he shall bathe in the water and he will be clean. And afterward, he shall enter into the camp and he shall dwell in {a place} outside of his tent {for} seven days.

⁹ And it will be, on the seventh day, he shall shave all his hair. His head and his beard and the brows of his eyes and all his hair he shall shave. And he shall wash his clothes and he shall bathe his flesh in the water. And he will be clean.

¹¹ And the priest, the one pronouncing clean, shall make the man, the person being cleansed, and them stand to the face of Yahweh {at} the entrance of the tent of meeting.

¹² And the priest shall take one lamb, and he shall present it as a guilt offering and the measure of oil. And he shall wave them {as} a wave offering to the face of Yahweh.

¹³ And he shall slaughter the lamb in the place where he slaughters the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the holy place, for the guilt offering {is} like the sin offering; it {is} for the priest. It {is} a holy thing of holy things.

¹⁵ And the priest shall take some of the measure of oil, and he shall pour {it} on the left palm of the priest.

¹⁹ And the priest shall make the sin offering, and he shall make atonement for the person being cleansed from his uncleanness. And after, he shall slaughter the burnt offering.

²⁰ And the priest shall make the burnt offering and the grain offering go up on the altar. And the priest shall make atonement for him, and he will be clean.

²¹ But if he {is} poor and his hand is not reaching, then he shall take one lamb {as} a guilt offering to wave, to make atonement for him, and one-tenth of flour mixed with oil as a grain offering and a measure of oil

²² and two doves or two sons of a pigeon that his hand reaches. And one will be a sin offering and one a burnt offering.

²³ And on the eighth day, he shall bring them for his cleansing to the priest, to the entrance of the tent of meeting, to the face of Yahweh.

²⁴ And the priest shall take the lamb of the guilt offering and the measure of oil. And the priest shall wave them {as} a wave offering to the face of Yahweh.

²⁵ And he shall slaughter the lamb of the guilt offering. And the priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering, and he shall give {it} on the lobe of the right ear of the person being cleansed and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

²⁶ And some of the oil the priest shall pour on the left palm of the priest.

²⁷ And the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that {is} on his left palm seven times to the face of Yahweh.

³⁰ And he shall make one from the doves or from the sons of the pigeon, from whatever his hand reaches—

³² This {is} the instruction of whoever {is} on him an infection of a skin disease, whose hand does not reach his cleansing.”

³³ And Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

³⁴ “When you enter into the land of Canaan, which I am giving to you as a possession, and I give an infection of a disease in a house of the land of your possession,

³⁵ then he whom the house {is} to him shall come, and he shall inform the priest, saying, ‘{Something} like an infection has appeared to me in the house.’

³⁸ Then the priest shall go out from the house to the entrance of the house, and he shall separate the house {for} seven days.

³⁹ And the priest shall return on the seventh day, and he shall see, and, look, the infection has spread in the walls of the house.

⁴² And they shall take other stones and they shall bring {them} into under the stones, and he shall take other soil and he shall plaster the house.

⁴³ But if the infection returns and it breaks out in the house after the pulling out of the stones and after the scrapping off of the house and after the plastering,

⁴⁴ then the priest shall come and he shall see. And, look, the infection has spread in the house; it {is} a malignant infection in the house. It {is} unclean.

⁴⁵ Then he shall tear down the house: its stones and its wood and all the soil of the house. And he shall take {them} out to {a place} on the outside of the city, to an unclean place.

⁴⁶ And the person who enters into the house all of the days of his separating it will be unclean until the evening.

⁴⁷ And the person dwelling in the house shall wash his clothes. And the person eating in the house shall wash his clothes.

⁴⁸ But if, coming, the priest comes, and he sees, and look, the infection has not spread in the house after the plastering of the house, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean because the infection was healed.

⁴⁹ And he shall take two birds and wood of cedar and scarlet of worm and hyssop to cleanse the house.

⁵⁰ And he shall slaughter one bird into a vessel of clay, over living water.

⁵¹ And he shall take the wood of cedar and the hyssop and the scarlet of worm and the live bird and he shall dip them in the blood of the bird, the one that was slaughtered, and in the living water, and he shall sprinkle {them} on the house seven times.

⁵² And he shall purify the house with the blood of the bird and with the living water and with the live bird and with the wood of cedar and with the hyssop and with the scarlet of worm.

⁵³ And he shall send the live bird to {a place} on the outside of the city, toward the face of the field. And he shall make atonement for the house, and it will be clean.

⁵⁴ This {is} the instruction of every infection of the skin disease and of the scall

⁵⁵ and of a skin disease of clothing and of the house

⁵⁶ and of the swelling and of the rash and of the bright spot

⁵⁷ in order to teach on the day of uncleanness or on the day of cleanness. This {is} the instruction of the skin disease."

Leviticus 15:1

¹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

² “Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, ‘A man, a man, when he is flowing from his flesh, his flow—it {is} unclean.

³ And this is his uncleanness in his flow: {whether} his flesh secretes his flow or his flesh blocks his flow, it {is} his uncleanness.

⁴ Any bed on which the flowing {person} lies shall be unclean, and any furniture on which he sits shall be unclean.

⁵ And a man who touches his bed shall wash his clothes. And he shall bathe with water and he shall be unclean until the evening.

⁶ And the person who sits on the furniture on which the flowing {person} sat shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe with water and he shall be unclean until the evening.

⁷ And the person who touches the flesh of the flowing {person} shall wash his clothes. And he shall bathe with water and he shall be unclean until the evening.

⁸ And when the flowing {person} spits on a person who is clean, then he shall wash his clothes and he shall bathe with water and he shall be unclean until the evening.

⁹ And any means of riding on which the flowing {person} rides shall be unclean.

¹⁰ And any person who touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening. And the one who lifts them shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe with water and he shall be unclean until the evening.

¹¹ And anyone who the flowing {person} touches him and he does not rinse his hands in water, then he shall wash his clothes and he shall bathe in water and he shall be unclean until the evening.

¹² And a container of clay that the flowing {person} touches shall be broken, and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed with water.

¹³ And when the flowing {person} cleanses from his flow, then he shall count for himself seven days for his cleansing. And he shall wash his clothes and he shall bathe his body in living water. And he will be clean.

¹⁴ And on the eighth day, he shall take for himself two doves or two sons of a pigeon and he shall come to the face of Yahweh at the entrance of the tent of meeting. And he shall give them to the priest.

¹⁵ And the priest shall make them, one {as} a sin offering and one {as} a burnt offering. And the priest shall make atonement for him to the face of Yahweh from his flow.

¹⁶ And a man, when a layer of seed goes out from him, then he shall bathe all his flesh with water. And he shall be unclean until the evening.

¹⁷ And any clothing and any leather on which is a layer of seed—and it shall be washed in water. And it shall be unclean until the evening.

¹⁸ And a woman with whom a man lies, a layer of seed, then they shall bathe with water and they shall be unclean until the evening.

¹⁹ And a woman, when she is flowing—blood is her flow in her flesh—{for} seven days, she will be in her menstruation. And any person who touches her shall be unclean until the evening.

²⁰ And anything on which she lies in her menstruation shall be unclean. And anything on which she sits shall be unclean.

²¹ And any person who touches her bed shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe with water. And he shall be unclean until the evening.

²² And any person who touches any furniture on which she sits shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe with water. And he shall be unclean until the evening.

²³ But if it {is} on the bed or on furniture on which she is sitting, when he touches it, he shall be unclean until the evening.

²⁶ Every bed on which she lies all the days of her flow shall be to her like the bed of her menstruation. And any furniture on which she sits shall be unclean, like the uncleanness of her menstruation.

²⁷ And any person who touches them shall be unclean. And he shall wash his clothes and he shall bathe with water and he shall be unclean until the evening.

²⁸ But if she cleanses {herself} from her flow, then she shall count for herself seven days and, after, she shall be clean.

²⁹ And on the eighth day, she shall take for herself two doves or two sons of a pigeon and she shall bring them to the priest, to the entrance of the tent of meeting.

³⁰ And the priest shall make one {as} a sin offering and one {as} a burnt offering. And the priest shall make atonement for her to the face of Yahweh from the flow of her uncleanness.

³² This {is} the instruction of the flowing {person} and of him from whom a layer of seed goes out to become unclean by it

³³ and of {the woman} who is sick in her menstruation and of the flowing of his flow, whether male or female, and of the man who lies with an unclean {woman}.”

Leviticus 16:1

¹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they presented {themselves} to the face of Yahweh and they died.

² And Yahweh said to Moses, “Speak to Aaron your brother, and he shall not enter at any time into the holy place from house to the curtain, to the face of the atonement lid that {is} on the Box, and he will not die. For I will appear in a cloud over the atonement lid.

³ In this {way}, Aaron shall enter into the holy place: with a bull, a son of the cattle, as a sin offering, and a ram as a burnt offering.

⁵ And from the congregation of the sons of Israel, he shall take two bucks of goats as a sin offering and one ram as a burnt offering.

⁶ And Aaron shall present the bull of the sin offering, which {is} for himself. And he shall make atonement on his behalf and on behalf of his house.

⁷ And he shall take the two goats, and he shall make them stand to the face of Yahweh at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

⁸ And Aaron shall give lots concerning the two goats—one lot to Yahweh, and one lot to Azazel.

⁹ And Aaron shall present the goat on which the lot to Yahweh fell, and he shall make it a sin offering.

¹⁰ But the goat on which the lot to Azazel fell shall be made to stand living to the face of Yahweh to make atonement on it by sending it away to Azazel, to the wilderness.

¹¹ And Aaron shall present the bull of the sin offering that {is} for himself. And he shall make atonement on his behalf and on behalf of his house. And he shall slaughter the bull of the sin offering that {is} for himself.

¹³ And he shall give the incense on the fire to the face of Yahweh. And the cloud of the incense will cover the atonement lid that {is} over the {Box of the} Testimony, and he will not die.

¹⁵ And he shall slaughter the goat of the sin offering that {is} for the people, and he shall bring its blood to from house to the curtain. And he shall make its blood just as he did to the blood of the bull. And he shall sprinkle it on the atonement lid and to the face of the atonement lid.

¹⁹ And he shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times. And he shall cleanse it and make it holy from the uncleanness of the sons of Israel.

²⁰ And he shall finish from making atonement {for} the holy place and the tent of meeting and the altar, and he shall present the living goat.

²² And the goat shall lift on itself all their iniquity to an inaccessible land. And he shall send the goat away into the wilderness.

²³ And Aaron shall enter into the tent of meeting, and he shall remove the linen clothing that he wore when he entered into the holy place. And he shall place them there.

²⁴ And he shall bathe his flesh in the water in a holy place, and he shall wear his clothes. And he shall go out, and he shall make his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people. And he shall make atonement on behalf of himself and on behalf of the people.

²⁵ And the fat of the sin offering he shall cause to become smoke on the altar.

²⁶ And the person sending away the goat to Azazel shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in the water. And after thus, he shall enter into the camp.

²⁷ And the bull of the sin offering and the goat of the sin offering, whose blood was brought to make atonement into the holy place, shall be brought out to {a place} outside of the camp. And they shall burn with fire their skins and their flesh and their dung.

²⁸ And the person burning them shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in the water. And after thus, he shall enter into the camp.

²⁹ And it will be for you an enduring statute: in the seventh month on the tenth day of the month, you shall humble your spirits, and you shall not do any work—the native-born {person} and the sojourner who sojourns among you—

³⁰ for on this day, he will make atonement for you to cleanse you from all your sins; to the face of Yahweh, you will be clean.

³¹ It {is} a sabbath of sabbaths for you, and you shall humble your spirits—an enduring statute.

³² And the priest whom he anoints him and whom he fills his hand to be priest under his father shall make atonement. And he shall wear his linen clothes, the clothes of holiness.

³³ And he shall make atonement {for} the holy place of holiness, and he shall make atonement {for} the tent of meeting and the altar. And he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.

³⁴ And this will be for you an enduring statute to make atonement for the sons of Israel from all their sins, once in the year.” And he did just as Yahweh commanded Moses.

Leviticus 17:1

¹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

² “Speak to Aaron and to his sons and to all the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, ‘This {is} the thing that Yahweh commanded, saying,

³ “A man, a man from the house of Israel who slaughters an ox or a lamb or a goat in the camp or who slaughters {it} outside of the camp,

⁴ but to the entrance of the tent of meeting, he does not bring it to present an offering to Yahweh to the face of the Dwelling of Yahweh—blood will be reckoned to that man. He has shed blood, and that man shall be cut off from the midst of his people

⁶ And the priest will sprinkle the blood on the altar of Yahweh at the entrance of the tent of meeting. And he will burn the fat for a sweet aroma for Yahweh.

⁷ And they must no longer sacrifice their sacrifices to goat idols, whom they prostitute themselves after. This will be a permanent statute for them throughout their generations.’

⁸ And you must say to them, ‘Any man from the house of Israel, or from the sojourners who sojourn among them, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice

⁹ and does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting in order to offer it to Yahweh, that man must be cut off from his people.

¹⁰ And any man from the house of Israel, or from the sojourners sojourning among them, who eats any blood, I will set my face against that person who eats the blood and I will cut him off from among his people.

¹¹ For the life of the flesh is in its blood, and I have given it to you on the altar to make atonement for your lives. For it is the blood with the life that atones.

¹² Therefore I said to the sons of Israel every person among you must not eat blood. And the sojourner who sojourns among you must not eat blood.

¹³ And any man from the sons of Israel, or from the sojourners sojourning among them, who hunts a wild game animal or bird that may be eaten, must pour out its blood and cover it with dirt.

¹⁴ For the life of all flesh is its blood, it is with its life. And I have said to the sons of Israel, "You must not eat the blood of any flesh. For the life of all flesh—it is its blood. All who eat it must be cut off."

¹⁵ And any person who eats an animal that has died or that has been torn by wild animals, among the native born or among the sojourners, he must wash his clothes and bathe in water, and he will be unclean until the evening. And he will be clean.

¹⁶ And if he does not wash or his body he does not bathe, then he must carry his iniquity."

Leviticus 18:1

¹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

² "Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, 'I {am} Yahweh your God.

³ According to the work of the land of Egypt in which you dwelt, you shall not do. And according to the work of the land of Canaan to which I am bringing you, you shall not do. And you shall not walk in their statutes.

⁴ My laws you must do, and my statutes you must keep, so that you walk in them. I am Yahweh your God.

⁵ And you must keep my statutes and my laws. The person who does them will live because of them. I am Yahweh.

⁶ Any man must not come near to any relative of his body to uncover nakedness. I am Yahweh.

⁷ The nakedness of your father and the nakedness of your mother you must not uncover. She is your mother, you must not uncover her nakedness.

⁸ The nakedness of the wife of your father you must not uncover. It is the nakedness of your father.

⁹ The nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father or the daughter of your mother, born at home or born outside, you must not uncover their nakedness.

¹⁰ The nakedness of your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter, you must not uncover their nakedness, for they are your nakedness.

¹¹ The nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, the offspring of your father, she is your sister. You must not uncover her nakedness.

¹² The nakedness of your father's sister you must not uncover. She is your father's relative.

¹³ The nakedness of your mother's sister you must not uncover, because she is your mother's relative.

¹⁴ The nakedness of your father's brother you must not uncover, to his wife you must not come near. She is your aunt.

¹⁵ The nakedness of your daughter-in-law you must not uncover. She is your son's wife. You must not uncover her nakedness.

¹⁶ The nakedness of your brother's wife you must not uncover. That is your brother's nakedness.

¹⁷ The nakedness of a woman and her daughter you must not uncover. Her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter you must not take to uncover her nakedness. They are relatives. It is wickedness.

¹⁸ And a woman with her sister you must not take as a rival to uncover her nakedness in addition to her while she is alive.

¹⁹ And you must not come near to a woman in the impurity of her uncleanness, to uncover her nakedness.

²⁰ And you must not give your emission of seed to your neighbor's wife, to become unclean with her.

²¹ And you must not give any of your children to cause to pass over to Molech. And you must not profane the name of your God. I am Yahweh.

²² And you must not lie with a male as one lies with a woman. That is detestable.

²³ And with any animal you must not lie to become unclean by it. And a woman must not stand before the face of an animal to lie down with it. That is perversion.

²⁴ Do not make yourselves unclean in any of these ways, for in all these ways the nations that I will drive out from before your face have become unclean.

²⁵ And the land became unclean, so I punished its sin upon it. And the land vomited out its inhabitants.

²⁶ And you yourselves must keep my statutes and my laws. And you must not do any of these detestable things, neither the native-born nor the sojourner who sojourns among you

²⁷ (for all these detestable things the men of the land have done, those who were before you, and the land has become unclean),

²⁸ so the land does not vomit you out after you have made it unclean, just as it vomited out the nation that was before you.

²⁹ Indeed, anyone who does any of these detestable things, the people who do such things will be cut off from among their people.

³⁰ And you must keep my obligation not to do any of the detestable customs which were done before you, and not make yourselves unclean by them. I am Yahweh your God."

Leviticus 19:1

¹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

² "Speak to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, 'You shall be holy, for I, Yahweh your God, {am} holy.

³ A man, his mother and his father, you shall fear, and my sabbaths you shall keep. I {am} Yahweh your God.

⁴ You shall not turn to idols, and gods of cast metal you shall not make for yourselves. I {am} Yahweh your God.

⁵ And when you sacrifice a sacrifice of peace offerings to Yahweh, you must sacrifice it for your acceptance.

⁶ On the day of your sacrifice it must be eaten, or on the next day, and what is left until the third day must be burned up in the fire.

⁷ And if it is eaten at all on the third day, it is unclean meat. It will not be accepted.

⁸ And the one who eats it must carry his iniquity because he has profaned the holy thing of Yahweh, and that person must be cut off from his people.

⁹ And when you harvest the harvest of your land, you must not completely harvest the edge of your field, and you must not gather the gleaning of your harvest.

¹⁰ And you must not glean your vineyard, and you must not gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard. You must leave them for the poor and for the sojourner. I am Yahweh your God.

¹¹ You must not steal and you must not deceive and you must not lie, a man with his fellow citizen.

¹² And you must not swear by my name falsely and profane the name of your God. I am Yahweh.

¹³ You must not oppress your neighbor and you must not rob. The wages of a hired worker must not stay all night with you until morning.

¹⁴ You must not curse the deaf and you must not put a stumbling block before the face of the blind. And you must fear your God. I am Yahweh.

¹⁵ You must not do injustice in judgment. You must not lift up the face of the poor, and you must not give preference to the face of the great. In justice you must judge your neighbor.

¹⁶ You must not walk around as a slanderer among your people. You must not stand against the blood of your neighbor. I am Yahweh.

¹⁷ You must not hate your brother in your heart. You must surely rebuke your fellow citizen and not incur sin because of him.

¹⁸ You must not take vengeance and you must not hold a grudge against the sons of your people, and you must love your neighbor as yourself. I am Yahweh.

¹⁹ You must keep my statutes. You must not breed together your livestock of two different kinds. Your field you must not sow with two different kinds of seed, and a garment of two different kinds of material you must not put on you.

²⁰ And if a man lies with a woman so there is emission of seed and she is a slave who is promised to a man, and she has not been ransomed at all or freedom has not been given to her, there must be punishment. They must not be put to death because she was not free.

²¹ And he must bring his guilt offering to Yahweh to the entrance of the tent of meeting—a ram as a guilt offering.

²² And the priest will make atonement for him with the ram for the guilt offering before the face of Yahweh, for the sin that he has sinned. And it will be forgiven him for his sin which he has sinned.

²³ And when you come into the land and have planted all kinds of trees for food, then you must regard its fruit as being uncircumcised in its foreskin. Three years it will be uncircumcised for you. It must not be eaten.

²⁴ And in the fourth year all of its fruit will be holy, offerings of praise to Yahweh.

²⁵ And in the fifth year you may eat its fruit, to increase its yield for you. I am Yahweh your God.

²⁶ You must not eat anything with the blood. You must not practice divination, and you must not interpret signs.

²⁷ You must not round off the corners of your heads and you must not shave off the edge of your beard.

²⁸ And you must not make a cut on your body for the dead and you must not make on yourselves a mark of a tattoo. I am Yahweh.

²⁹ Do not profane your daughter by causing her to be a prostitute, and the land will not fall to prostitution and the land become full of wickedness.

³⁰ My sabbaths you must keep and my holy place you must fear. I am Yahweh.

³¹ Do not turn to the necromancers or to the soothsayers. Do not seek to become unclean by them. I am Yahweh your God.

³² From the face of the gray-haired person you must rise and you must show respect in the face of an old person. You must fear your God. I am Yahweh.

³³ And if a sojourner sojourns among you in your land, you must not oppress him.

³⁴ Like the native-born among you must be to you the sojourner who sojourns with you. And you must love him as yourself, because you were sojourners in the land of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.

³⁵ You must not do injustice in judgment, in measurement of length, in weight, or in quantity.

³⁶ Just scales, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin you must have. I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt.

³⁷ And you must keep all my statutes and all my laws, and you must do them. I am Yahweh.”

Leviticus 20:1

¹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

² “And to the sons of Israel, you shall say, ‘A man, a man from the sons of Israel or from the sojourner, the one sojourning in Israel, who gives from his seed to Molech—dying, he shall be executed. The people of the land shall stone him with the rock.

³ And I also will set my face against that man and I will cut him off from among his people. For he has given his offspring to Molech, so as to make my holy place unclean and to profane my holy name.

⁴ And if the people of the land cause their eyes to be hidden at all from that man when he gives his offspring to Molech, so as to not put him to death,

⁵ then I myself will set my face against that man and his clan. And I will cut him off and all the ones who prostitute themselves after him, by prostituting themselves after Molech, from the midst of their people.

⁶ And the person who turns to the necromancers or to the soothsayers so as to prostitute themselves after them, I will set my face against that person. And I will cut him off from among his people.

⁷ So make yourselves holy and be holy ones, because I am Yahweh your God.

⁸ And you must keep my statutes and do them. I am Yahweh who makes you holy.

⁹ If there is any man who curses his father or his mother, he must surely be put to death. He has cursed his father or his mother, his blood is on him.

¹⁰ And if a man commits adultery with a man's wife, that is, he commits adultery with his neighbor's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress must certainly be put to death.

¹¹ And if a man lies with his father's wife, he uncovers his father's nakedness. Both of them must certainly be put to death. Their blood is on them.

¹² And if a man lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them must certainly be put to death. They have committed perversion; their blood is on them.

¹³ And if a man lies with a male as one lies with a woman, both of them have done a detestable thing. They must surely be put to death; their blood is on them.

¹⁴ And if a man takes a wife and her mother, this is wickedness. In the fire they must be burned, he and they, and there will not be wickedness among you.

¹⁵ And if a man lies with an animal, he must surely be put to death, and you must kill the animal.

¹⁶ And if a woman comes near to any animal to lie with it, then you must kill the woman and the animal. They must certainly be put to death; their blood is on them.

¹⁷ And if a man takes his sister, a daughter of his father or a daughter of his mother, and he sees her nakedness, and she sees his nakedness, it is a shameful thing, and they must be cut off in the eyes of the sons of their people. He has uncovered the nakedness of his sister. He must bear his iniquity.

¹⁸ And if a man lies with a menstruating woman and has uncovered her nakedness, he has exposed her flow and she has uncovered the flow of her blood. And both of them must be cut off from among their people.

¹⁹ And the nakedness of your mother's sister, or your father's sister, you must not uncover because he would expose his relative. They must bear their iniquity.

²⁰ And if a man lies with his aunt, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness. They will bear their sin; they will die childless.

²¹ And if a man takes his brother's wife, that is disgraceful. He has uncovered the nakedness of his brother; they will be childless.

²² And you must keep all my statutes and all my judgments, and you must do them, and the land which I am bringing you there to dwell in will not vomit you out.

²³ And you must not walk in the statutes of the nations that I will drive out from before your face. For they have done all these things, and I detest them.

²⁴ And I said to you, "You will possess their land and I will give it to you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey. I am Yahweh your God, who has separated you from the peoples.

²⁵ And you must distinguish between the clean animal and the unclean, and between the unclean bird and the clean. And you must not make yourselves detestable by an animal or by a bird or by anything that crawls on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean.

²⁶ And you must be holy ones for me, because I, Yahweh, am holy, and I have separated you from the peoples to be mine.

²⁷ And if there is among them a man or woman necromancer or soothsayer, they must certainly be put to death. They must stone them with stones. Their blood is on them."

Leviticus 21:1

¹ And Yahweh said to Moses, “Say to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and you shall say to them, ‘For a {dead} person, he shall not make himself unclean among his people,

² except for his body, the one close to him—for his mother or for his father or for his son or for his daughter or for his brother

³ or for his virgin sister, the one close to him, who does not have a husband—for her, he shall make himself unclean.

⁴ He must not make himself unclean as a husband among his people, to profane himself.

⁵ They must not shave a bald patch on their heads and they must not shave off the corner of their beard, and they must not cut a cut in their flesh.

⁶ They must be holy ones to their God and they must not profane the name of their God. For they are offering Yahweh’s offerings made by fire, the bread of their God, so they must be holy.

⁷ He must not take a woman who is a prostitute or profaned. And he must not take a woman divorced from her husband. For he is holy to his God.

⁸ And you will make him holy, for he is the one who offers the bread of your God. He must be holy for you, because I, Yahweh who makes you holy, am holy.

⁹ And a daughter of any priest who profanes herself by becoming a prostitute, she is profaning her father. In the fire she must be burned.

¹⁰ And the great priest among his brothers, who has had the oil of anointing poured upon his head and has had his hand filled to wear the garments, he must not let his head be unbound and he must not tear his clothes.

¹¹ And he must not go near any dead person, for his father or for his mother. He must not make himself unclean.

¹² And he must not leave from the holy place and he must not profane the holy place of his God. For the dedication of the oil of the anointing of his God is upon him. I am Yahweh.

¹³ And he must take a wife in her virginity.

¹⁴ A widow, or a divorced woman, or a profaned prostitute—these he must not take. But rather, a virgin from his people he must take as a wife.

¹⁵ And he will not profane his offspring among his people. For I am Yahweh who makes him holy.”

¹⁶ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

¹⁷ “Speak to Aaron, saying, ‘A man from your offspring throughout their generations who has a defect in him must not come near to offer food to his God.

¹⁸ For any man who has in him a defect must not come near: a man blind or lame or who has a slit nose or who is deformed,

¹⁹ or a man who has a broken foot or a broken hand,

²⁰ or a hunchback, or a dwarf, or one with a defect in his eye or eczema or scabs or a crushed testicle.

²¹ Any man who has in him a defect among the offspring of Aaron the priest must not approach to offer Yahweh’s offerings made by fire. A defect is in him. He must not approach to offer the bread of his God.

²² The food of his God, some of the holiest holy things and some of the holy things, he may eat.

²³ However, he must not go into the curtain and he must not approach to the altar. For a defect is in him and he must not profane my holy place. For I am Yahweh who makes them holy.”

²⁴ And Moses spoke to Aaron and to his sons and to all the sons of Israel.

Leviticus 22:1

¹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

² “Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and they shall be separated from the holy things of the sons of Israel, which they {are} making holy to me, and they shall not profane the name of my holiness. I {am} Yahweh.

³ Say to them, “To your generations, any man who draws near from all your seed to the holy things that the sons of Israel have made holy to Yahweh and his uncleanness {is} on him, that person shall be cut off from before my face. I {am} Yahweh.

⁴ Any man from the seed of Aaron who is one with a skin disease or a fluid discharge, he must not eat of the holy things until he becomes clean. And the one who touches anything unclean of a corpse, or a man who has go out from him an emission of seed,

⁵ or a man who touches any swarming thing that makes him unclean, or a person who makes him unclean, whatever his uncleanness—

⁶ the person who touches it will be unclean until the evening. And he must not eat from the holy things, unless he has bathed his body in water.

⁷ And when the sun has set, then he will be clean. And afterward he may eat from the holy things, because it is his food.

⁸ He must not eat an animal found dead or killed by wild animals, to become unclean by it. I am Yahweh.

⁹ And they must keep my obligations, and they will not bear sin because of it and die by it, because they profaned it. I am Yahweh who makes them holy.

¹⁰ And any stranger may not eat the holy thing. A foreign guest of the priest or a hired worker may not eat the holy thing.

¹¹ And if a priest buys a person as property with his silver—he may eat it, and a descendant of his house, they may eat his food.

¹² And if a priest’s daughter becomes the wife of a stranger, she may not eat the contributions of the holy things.

¹³ And if the daughter of a priest becomes a widow, or divorced, and there is no offspring for her, and she returns to her father’s house as in her youth, she may eat from the food of her father. And any stranger may not eat it.

¹⁴ And if a man eats a holy thing by mistake, then he must add its fifth on it and give the holy thing to the priest.

¹⁵ And they must not profane the holy things of the sons of Israel that they lifted up to Yahweh,

¹⁶ and cause themselves to bear the guilt of the guilt offering by their eating their holy things. For I am Yahweh who makes them holy.”

¹⁷ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

¹⁸ “Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the sons of Israel, and say to them, ‘Any man from the house of Israel, or from the sojourners in Israel, who offers his offering, for any of their vows or for any of their freewill offerings, which they present to Yahweh as a burnt offering,

¹⁹ for your acceptance, it must be a male without blemish from the cattle, from the sheep, or from the goats.

²⁰ Anything that has a blemish on it you must not offer, because it will not be acceptable for you.

²¹ And when a man offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to Yahweh to fulfill a vow or as a freewill offering from the herd or from the flock, it must be unblemished to be accepted. There must not be any defect in it.

²² The blind, or disabled, or maimed, or that have warts, or eczema, or scabs—these you must not offer to Yahweh. And you must not give from them an offering made by fire on the altar to Yahweh.

²³ An ox or a lamb that is deformed or stunted—it you may offer as a freewill offering, but for a vow it will not be accepted.

²⁴ One that is bruised, or crushed, or torn, or has cut testicles you must not offer to Yahweh, and in your land you must not do so.

²⁵ And from the hand of the son of a foreigner you must not offer the food of your God from any of these because their deformity is in them and a defect is in them. They will not be accepted for you.”

²⁶ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

²⁷ “When an ox or a sheep or a goat is born, it must remain seven days with its mother. And from the eighth day and beyond, it may be accepted as an offering, an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

²⁸ And an ox or a sheep, it and its young you must not slaughter on the same day.

²⁹ And when you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanks to Yahweh, you must sacrifice it for your acceptance.

³⁰ On that day it must be eaten, you must not leave part of it until morning. I am Yahweh.

³¹ And you must keep my commandments and you must do them. I am Yahweh.

³² And you must not profane my holy name. I must be treated as holy in the midst of the sons of Israel. I am Yahweh who sets you apart,

³³ who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God: I am Yahweh.”

Leviticus 23:1

¹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

² “Speak to the sons of Israel, and say to them, “These are the appointed times of Yahweh, which you must proclaim as holy assemblies. They are my appointed times.

³ Six days work will be done, and on the seventh day is a sabbath of solemn rest, a holy assembly. You must not do any work. It is a sabbath for Yahweh in all your dwellings.

⁴ These are the appointed times of Yahweh, the holy assemblies, them which you must announce at their appointed times:

⁵ In the first month, on day 14 of the month, between the evenings, is Yahweh’s Passover.

⁶ And on day 15 of this month is the Festival of Unleavened Bread for Yahweh. Seven days you must eat unleavened bread.

⁷ On the first day there will be a holy assembly for you. You must not do any work of labor.

⁸ And you will offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh for seven days. On day seven is a holy assembly. You must not do any work of labor.”

⁹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

¹⁰ “Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you have come into the land that I am giving to you, and you harvest its harvest, then you must bring a sheaf of the first of your harvest to the priest.

¹¹ And he will wave the sheaf before the face of Yahweh to be accepted for you. On the day after the sabbath the priest must wave it.

¹² And you must offer, on the day when you wave the sheaf, a male lamb, one year old, without blemish as a burnt offering to Yahweh.

¹³ And its grain offering must be two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as an offering made by fire to Yahweh, a sweet aroma, and its drink offering, a fourth of a hin of wine.

¹⁴ And bread, and roasted grain and fresh grain you must not eat until this very day, until your offering of the offering of your God. It is a permanent statute throughout your generations, in all your dwellings.

¹⁵ And you will count for yourselves from the day after the sabbath—from the day of your bringing the sheaf of the wave offering—there will be seven full sabbaths.

¹⁶ Until the day after the seventh sabbath you must count 50 days. And you must offer an offering of new grain to Yahweh.

¹⁷ From your dwellings you must bring bread for a wave offering. They must be two loaves of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour. They must be baked with yeast as firstfruits to Yahweh.

¹⁸ And you must offer with the bread seven male lambs without defects, sons of the year, and one bull, a son of the herd, and two rams. They must be a burnt offering to Yahweh, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma for Yahweh.

¹⁹ And you must offer one buck of the goats for a sin offering, and two male lambs, sons of the year, for a sacrifice of peace offerings.

²⁰ And the priest must wave them with the bread of the firstfruits wave offering before the face of Yahweh with the two lambs. They will be set apart to Yahweh for the priest.

²¹ And you must make a proclamation on that very day. There will be a holy assembly for you. You must not do any work of labor. It is a permanent statute in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

²² And when you harvest the harvest of your land, you must not finish the edge of your field as you harvest, and you must not gather the gleaning of your harvest. You must leave them for the poor and for the sojourner. I am Yahweh your God.”

²³ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

²⁴ “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘In the seventh month, on day one of the month there will be for you a solemn rest, a memorial by trumpet blast, a holy assembly.

²⁵ You must not do any work of labor, and you must offer a sacrifice made by fire to Yahweh.”

²⁶ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

²⁷ “Surely on day 10 of this seventh month it is the Day of Atonement. It will be a holy assembly for you, and you must humble yourselves and offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

²⁸ And you must not do any work on that very day because it is the Day of Atonement, to make atonement for yourselves before the face of Yahweh your God.

²⁹ If there is any person who does not humble himself on that very day, then he must be cut off from his people.

³⁰ And any person who does any work on that very day, I will destroy that person from among his people.

³¹ You must not do any work. It is a permanent statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

³² It is a sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you must humble yourselves on day nine of the month in the evening. From evening until evening you are to observe your sabbath.”

³³ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

³⁴ “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘On day 15 of the seventh month this is the Festival of Huts for seven days to Yahweh.

³⁵ On the first day there must be a holy assembly. You must not do any work of labor.

³⁶ Seven days you must offer a sacrifice made by fire to Yahweh. On the eighth day there must be a holy assembly for you, and you must offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh. It is a solemn assembly. You must not do any work of labor.

³⁷ These are the appointed times of Yahweh, which you must proclaim as holy assemblies to offer a sacrifice made by fire to Yahweh, a burnt offering and a grain offering, sacrifices and drink offerings, each day’s matter on its day,

³⁸ apart from the sabbaths of Yahweh, and apart from your gifts, and apart from all your vows, and apart from all your freewill offerings that you give to Yahweh.

³⁹ Surely on day 15 of the seventh month when you have gathered the produce of the land, you must celebrate a festival of Yahweh for seven days, on the first day a solemn rest, and on the eighth day a solemn rest.

⁴⁰ And you must take for yourselves on the first day the fruit of the majestic trees, branches of palm trees, and branches of leafy trees, and willows of the stream. And you will rejoice before the face of Yahweh your God seven days.

⁴¹ And you must celebrate it as a festival for Yahweh seven days in the year. It is a permanent statute throughout your generations in the seventh month you must celebrate it.

⁴² In the huts you must live for seven days. All the native-born in Israel must live in the huts,

⁴³ so that your generations may know that I made the sons of Israel live in the huts when I brought them from the land of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.”

⁴⁴ And Moses announced the appointed times of Yahweh to the sons of Israel.

Leviticus 24:1

¹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

² “Command the sons of Israel and they will bring to you pure beaten oil of the olive for the light, so the lamp may burn continually.

³ Outside the curtain of the testimony in the tent of meeting, Aaron must keep it in order, from evening until morning, before the face of Yahweh continually. It is a permanent statute throughout your generations.

⁴ On the pure gold lampstand he must keep the lamps in order before the face of Yahweh continually.

⁵ And you must take fine flour and bake 12 cakes with it. There must be two-tenths of an ephah in one cake.

⁶ And you must set them in two rows, six in a row, on the pure gold table before the face of Yahweh.

⁷ And you must put on the row pure incense and it will be a memorial portion for the bread, an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

⁸ On the day of the sabbath, every sabbath, he must keep it in order before the face of Yahweh continually. It is from the sons of Israel as an eternal covenant.

⁹ And it will be for Aaron and for his sons, and they must eat it in a holy place. For it is a holiest holy thing for him, from Yahweh's offerings made by fire, a perpetual portion."

¹⁰ Now the son of an Israelite woman, who was also the son of an Egyptian man, went out in the midst of the sons of Israel. And the son of the Israelite woman and an Israelite man fought in the camp.

¹¹ And the son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name and cursed, and they brought him to Moses. (Now his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.)

¹² And they caused him to remain in the guard-post until it would be made clear to them what was in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh.

¹³ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

¹⁴ "Bring out the one who has cursed to the outside of the camp. And all the hearers must lay their hands on his head, and all the assembly must stone him.

¹⁵ And speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'If any man curses his God, then he must bear his sin.

¹⁶ And he who blasphemes the name of Yahweh must surely be put to death. All the assembly must certainly stone him, as the sojourner so the native-born. When he blasphemes the Name, he must be put to death.

¹⁷ And if a man strikes dead any human being, he must certainly be put to death.

¹⁸ And he who strikes dead the life of an animal must repay it, life in place of life.

¹⁹ And if a man gives an injury to his fellow citizen, as he has done so it will be done to him:

²⁰ fracture in place of fracture, eye in place of eye, tooth in place of tooth. As he gave an injury to a human, so it must be given to him.

²¹ And he who strikes dead an animal must repay it. And he who strikes dead a human must be put to death.

²² There must be one law for you, as the sojourner so will be the native-born. For I am Yahweh your God."

²³ And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and they brought the one who had cursed to the outside of the camp. And they stoned him with stones, and the sons of Israel did as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 25:1

¹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai, saying,

² "Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, 'When you come to the land that I am giving to you, then the land must keep a sabbath, a sabbath for Yahweh.

³ Six years you must plant your field, and six years you must prune your vineyard and gather its produce.

⁴ And in the seventh year, there must be a sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a sabbath for Yahweh. You must not plant your field and you must not prune your vineyard.

⁵ You must not harvest the second growth of your harvest and you must not gather the grapes of your unpruned vines. It will be a year of solemn rest for the land.

⁶ And the sabbath of the land will be for you, as food for you, and for your male slave, and for your female slave, and for your hired servant, and for the foreign resident who is sojourning with you,

⁷ and for your livestock and for the wild animal that is in your land, all its yield will be for eating.

⁸ And you must count for yourself seven sabbaths of years, seven times seven years, and there will be for you a period of seven sabbaths of years, 49 years.

⁹ And you must cause the horn blast to be heard on the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month. On the Day of Atonement you must cause the horn to be heard throughout all your land.

¹⁰ And you must set apart the year, year 50, and proclaim freedom in the land to all its inhabitants. It will be a jubilee for you and you must return a man to his property and you must return a man to his family.

¹¹ That year, year 50, will be a jubilee for you. You must not plant and not harvest its second growth and not harvest its unpruned vines.

¹² For it is a jubilee, it will be holy for you. You must eat its yield from the field.

¹³ In this Year of Jubilee you must return a man to his property.

¹⁴ And if you sell something sold to your fellow citizen or buy from the hand of your fellow citizen, a man must not oppress his brother.

¹⁵ According to the number of years after the jubilee you must buy from your fellow citizen. According to the number of years of yield he must sell to you.

¹⁶ According to the multitude of the years you must increase its purchase price, but according to the fewness of the years you must decrease its purchase price, because of the number of yields he is selling to you.

¹⁷ And you must not oppress, a man his fellow citizen. And you must fear your God, for I am Yahweh your God.

¹⁸ And you must do my statutes, and my laws you must keep and do them. And you will dwell on the land securely.

¹⁹ And the land will give its fruit, and you will eat to satisfaction and dwell securely on it.

²⁰ And if you say, "What will we eat in the seventh year? Look, we cannot plant and we cannot gather our yield."

²¹ Then I will command my blessing for you in the sixth year, and it will produce yield for three years.

²² And you will plant in the eighth year and you will eat from the old yield until the ninth year, until its yield comes in you will eat the old.

²³ And the land must not be sold for perpetuity, for the land belongs to me. For you are sojourners and temporary residents with me.

²⁴ And in all the land of your possession you must give redemption for the land.

²⁵ If your brother becomes poor and sells some of his property, then his redeemer nearest to him may come and redeem the things sold of his brother.

²⁶ And if a man does not have a redeemer for it, but his hand produces and he finds enough for its redemption,

²⁷ then he may calculate the years of its sale and return the balance to the man whom he sold it to. And he may return to his property.

²⁸ And if his hand does not find enough to get it back for himself, then his sold things will remain in the hand of he who bought it until the Year of Jubilee. And it will go out in the Jubilee and he will return to his property.

²⁹ And if a man sells a residential house of a walled city, then his right of redemption will be until the completion of the year of its sale. It will be the days of his right of redemption.

³⁰ And if it is not redeemed for him up to the fulfilling of an entire year, then the house which is in the city which has its wall will belong in perpetuity to him who bought it and to his descendants. It will not go out in the Jubilee.

³¹ And the houses of the villages that have no wall around them will be considered as the field of the land. There will be redemption for it, and in the Jubilee it will go out.

³² As for the cities of the Levites, the houses of the cities of their possession, the right of redemption is permanent for the Levites.

³⁴ And the field of the pastureland of their cities must not be sold because it is their permanent possession.

³⁵ And if your brother becomes poor and his hand is shaky with you, then you must support him as a sojourner or temporary resident and he will live with you.

³⁶ Do not take from him interest or usury, and you must fear your God and your brother may live with you.

³⁷ Your silver you must not give to him with interest and for profit you must not give your food.

³⁸ I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt to give to you the land of Canaan, to be your God.

³⁹ And if your brother with you becomes poor and is sold to you, you must not make him work the work of a slave.

⁴⁰ Like a hired worker, like a temporary resident, he must be with you. Until the Year of Jubilee he will serve with you.

⁴¹ And he will go away from you, he and his sons with him, and he will return to his clan. And he will return to the possession of his fathers.

⁴² For they are my servants, them which I brought out of the land of Egypt. They will not be sold in a slave sale.

⁴³ You must not rule over him with ruthlessness, and you must fear your God.

⁴⁴ As for your male slave and your female slave who you have for yourself, from the nations that surround you, from them you may acquire a male slave or a female slave.

⁴⁵ And also from the sons of the sojourners who are dwelling with you, from them you may acquire, and from their clans who are with you, who have given birth in your land—they may become your property.

⁴⁶ And you may bequeath them to your sons after you, to inherit as a possession, you may let them work permanently. But as for your brothers, the sons of Israel, a man with his brother, you must not rule over him with ruthlessness.

⁴⁷ And if the hand of a sojourner or a temporary resident with you has produced, and your brother with you becomes poor and is sold to a sojourner, a temporary resident with you, or to a descendant of a clan of a sojourner,

⁴⁸ after he has been sold, there will be redemption for him. One of his brothers may redeem him, ⁴⁹ or his uncle, or the son of his uncle may redeem him; or a relative of his flesh from his clan may redeem him. Or, if his hand has produced, then he may redeem himself.

⁵⁰ And he will calculate with his buyer from the year he was sold to him until the Year of Jubilee, and the silver of his sale must be according to the number of years; like the days of a hired worker it will be with him.

⁵¹ If there are still many of the years, according to them he must pay back his redemption from the silver of his purchase.

⁵² And if a few of the years until the Year of Jubilee are left, then he must calculate for him according to his years. He must pay back his redemption.

⁵³ Like a hired worker year by year he will be with him. He must not rule over him with ruthlessness in your eyes.

⁵⁴ And if he is not redeemed by these, then he must go out in the Year of Jubilee, he and his sons with him.

⁵⁵ For to me the sons of Israel are servants. They are my servants, them which I brought out of the land of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.”

Leviticus 26:1

¹ “You must not make for yourselves idols. And a carved figure or a stone pillar you must not lift up for yourselves, and a stone sculpture you must not put in your land to bow down in front of it. For I am Yahweh your God.

² My sabbaths you must keep and my holy place you must fear. I am Yahweh.

³ If you walk in my statutes and keep my commandments and do them,

⁴ then I will give your rain in its season. And the land will give its yield, and the tree of the field will give its fruit.

⁵ And your threshing season will reach the grape harvest, and the grape harvest will reach the planting season. And you will eat your bread to satisfaction and dwell securely in your land.

⁶ And I will give peace in the land. And you will lie down and there will be nothing that makes one afraid. And I will remove the harmful animals from the land, and the sword will not pass through your land.

⁷ And you will pursue those who are hostile to you, and they will fall before your face by the sword.

⁸ And five from you will pursue a hundred, and a hundred from you will pursue ten thousand. And those who are hostile to you will fall before your face by the sword.

⁹ And I will turn to you and make you fruitful and multiply you. And I will establish my covenant with you.

¹⁰ And you will eat the old that has grown old and the old you will bring out from the face of the new.

¹¹ And I will put my holy place in the midst of you, and my spirit will not detest you.

¹² And I will walk in the midst of you and I will be your God, and you will be my people.

¹³ I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt, from being their slaves. And I broke the bars of your yoke and made you to walk upright.

¹⁴ And if you will not listen to me, and will not do all these commandments,

¹⁵ and if you reject my statutes and if your spirit detests my laws, so as to not do all my commandments, so that you break my covenant—

¹⁶ then surely I will do this to you: I will inflict terror on you, consumption and fever that destroys the eyes and drains away life. And you will sow your seed for nothing, because those who are hostile to you will eat it.

¹⁷ And I will set my face against you, and you will be defeated in the face of those who are hostile to you. And those who hate you will rule over you; and you will flee, though there is not one who chases you.

¹⁸ And if up to these you do not listen to me, then I will continue to discipline you seven times for your sins.

¹⁹ And I will break the pride of your power. And I will make your sky like iron and your land like bronze.

²⁰ And your strength will be used up for nothing, because your land will not give its yield. And the tree of the land will not give its fruit.

²¹ And if you walk against me in opposition and are not willing to listen to me, then I will add upon you a plague seven times, according to your sins.

²² And I will send forth among you animals of the field, and they will make you childless, and destroy your livestock, and make you few in number. And your roads will become deserted.

²³ And if in spite of these things you do not accept my discipline and you walk against me in opposition, ²⁴ then I will also walk, I myself, against you in opposition. And I will strike you, even I myself, seven times because of your sins.

²⁵ And I will bring a sword upon you that will avenge with the vengeance of the covenant, and you will be gathered into your cities. And I will send a plague in the midst of you, and you will be given into the hand of the one who is hostile.

²⁶ When I break the staff of your bread, then ten women will bake your bread in one oven. And they will distribute your bread by weight, and you will eat but not be satisfied.

²⁷ And if in spite of this you do not listen to me, and you walk against me in opposition, ²⁸ then I will walk against you in the wrath of opposition. And I will discipline you, even I, seven times for your sins.

²⁹ And you will eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters you will eat.

³⁰ And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your incense altars, and put your corpses on the corpses of your idols, and I myself will abhor you.

³¹ And I will lay your cities in ruins and make your holy places desolate. And I will not smell your sweet aromas.

³² And I myself will make the land desolate, and those who are hostile to you who dwell in it will be shocked at it.

³³ And I will scatter you among the nations, and I will unsheathe a sword behind you. And your land will be desolate, and your cities will be ruined.

³⁴ Then the land will enjoy its sabbaths all the days of its desolation while you are in the land of those who are hostile to you. Then the land will rest and enjoy its sabbaths.

³⁵ All the days of its desolation it will rest what it did not rest on your sabbaths when you lived on it.

³⁶ As for the ones who are remaining among you, I will bring despair into their hearts in the land of those who are hostile to them, and the sound of a windblown leaf will chase them. And they will flee as one fleeing from a sword, and you will fall though there is not one who chases.

³⁷ And you will stumble, each over his brother, as from the face of a sword, though there is not one who chases. And you will have no power to stand to the face of those who are hostile to you.

³⁸ And you will perish among the nations, and the land of those who are hostile to you will devour you.

³⁹ And the ones who are remaining among you will rot in their iniquity, in the lands of those who are hostile to you. And also in the iniquities of their fathers they will rot with them.

⁴⁰ And if they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, in their unfaithfulness which they acted unfaithfully against me, and also that they walked against me in opposition—

⁴¹ also I myself went against them in opposition and I brought them into the land of those who are hostile to them—if then their uncircumcised hearts become humbled, and then they pay for their iniquity, ⁴² then I will remember my covenant with Jacob. And also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham I will remember. And I will remember the land.

⁴³ And the land was abandoned by them, and it will rejoice with its sabbaths while being desolate without them. And they themselves will pay for their iniquity because they rejected my judgments and their spirit detested my statutes.

⁴⁴ And despite even this, when they are in the land of those who are hostile to them, I will not reject them, and I will not detest them so as to destroy them, to break my covenant with them. For I am Yahweh their God.

⁴⁵ And I will remember for their sake the covenant with their ancestors, them whom I brought out from the land of Egypt in the eyes of the nations, to be their God. I am Yahweh.”

⁴⁶ These are the statutes, and the judgments, and the instructions that Yahweh made between himself and between the sons of Israel at Mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

Leviticus 27:1

¹ And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

² “Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘If a man vows a vow according to your valuation of persons to Yahweh,

³ then your valuation will be for a male from a son of 20 years and up to a son of 60 years and your valuation must be 50 shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the holy place.

⁴ And if she is a female, then your valuation must be 30 shekels.

⁵ And if from a son of five years and up to a son of 20 years, then your valuation for the male must be 20 shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

⁶ And if from a son of a month and up to a son of five years, then your valuation for the male must be five shekels of silver, and for the female your valuation of three shekels of silver.

⁷ And if from a son of 60 years and up, if a male, then your valuation must be 15 shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

⁸ And if he is poorer than your valuation, then he must present himself to the face of the priest, and the priest will value him. According to what the hand of the one making the vow produces the priest will value him.

⁹ And if it is an animal from which they offer an offering to Yahweh, all that he gives from them to Yahweh will be set apart.

¹⁰ He must not replace it and he must not exchange it, a good one for a bad one or a bad for a good. And if he exchanges at all an animal for an animal, then it will be and the exchanged one will be set apart.

¹¹ And if any animal is unclean from which an offering must not be offered to Yahweh, then he must present the animal to the face of the priest.

¹² And the priest will set its value as either good or bad. According to the valuation of you, the priest, thus will it be.

¹³ And if he ever redeems it, then he must add its fifth in addition to your valuation.

¹⁴ And when a man sets apart his house as a holy thing to Yahweh, then the priest will set its value as either good or bad. As the priest values it, so it will stand.

¹⁵ And if the one who set it apart redeems his house, then he must add a fifth of the silver of your valuation to it, and it will belong to him.

¹⁶ And if a man sets apart part of the field of his property to Yahweh, then your valuation will be in proportion to its seed—a homer of barley seed for 50 shekels of silver.

¹⁷ If he sets apart his field during the Year of Jubilee, according to your valuation it will stand.

¹⁸ And if he sets apart his field after the Jubilee, then the priest must calculate for it the silver according to the years remaining until the Year of Jubilee, and it must be reduced from your valuation.

¹⁹ And if he who set it apart ever redeems the field, then he must add a fifth of the silver of your valuation to it, and it will belong to him.

²⁰ And if he does not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it cannot be redeemed again.

²¹ And the field will be, when it goes out in the Jubilee, a holy thing to Yahweh, like the field that has been dedicated by ban. It will belong to the priest as his property.

²² And if he sets apart to Yahweh a field of his acquisition that is not part of the field of his property,

²³ then the priest will calculate for him the amount of your valuation up to the Year of Jubilee, and the man must give your valuation on that day as a holy thing to Yahweh.

²⁴ In the Year of Jubilee, the field will return to whom he bought it from, to whom belongs the possession of the land.

²⁵ And all your valuations must be by the shekel of the holy place; 20 gerahs must be the shekel.

²⁶ Surely the firstborn which belongs as firstborn to Yahweh among animals, a man must not set it apart. Whether ox or sheep, it belongs to Yahweh.

²⁷ And if it is among the unclean animals, then he may buy it back according to your valuation, and he must add its fifth to it. And if it is not redeemed, then it will be sold at your valuation.

²⁸ Surely any dedicated thing that a man dedicates to Yahweh, from all that belongs to him, from human or animal, or from the field of his property, must not be sold and must not be redeemed. Every dedicated thing, it is the holiest holy thing to Yahweh.

²⁹ Every dedicated one who is dedicated from mankind must not be ransomed. He must surely be put to death.

³⁰ And all the tithe of the land, from the seed of the land and from the fruit of the tree, belongs to Yahweh. It is holy to Yahweh.

³¹ And if a man ever redeems some of his tenth, he must add its fifth in addition to it.

³² As for every tenth of the herd or the flock, anything that passes under the rod, the tenth must be set apart to Yahweh.

³³ He must not seek to distinguish between good and bad, and he must not exchange it. And if he exchanges it at all, then it will be and its substitute will be set apart. It must not be redeemed.”

³⁴ These are the commandments that Yahweh commanded Moses for the sons of Israel at Mount Sinai.
